Focus of Meeting – Bullying prevention

✓ Bullying Prevention Policy

Mrs Walsh shared the new children's version of the bullying prevention policy. There was positive feedback:

- ✓ Everything has been included that the children asked for
- ✓ It is in simple language so it is easy to understand
- ✓ It is colourful
- ✓ It is small and compact so quick to read and refer to

A vote was taken and it was unanimously accepted as the children's bullying prevention policy.

Action: Mrs Walsh to give to school councillors to share with their classes once approved by the Governors

✓ Anti-Bullying Posters

Mrs Walsh shared the posters submitted by each class for bullying prevention created during anti-bullying week.

School council chose their favourites to go up around school

Mrs Walsh also share the school's own poster from the main policy. School Councillors to read policy with their classes and make sure it is clearly displayed in their classrooms.

Action: Mrs Walsh to laminate and to ask Jackie to put up in school

Action: School Councillors to put up school poster in their classrooms

✓ Next meeting

At Class Council – children to highlight 2 stars and a wish for school. 2x things that are working really well and one thing that could be even better

Next meeting – 15th March 2020
